

“ROW”

SARAH ROWLEY

*team leader | project manager
+ interior designer*

*west virginia
b.s. interior design
west virginia university*

work experience:

collaboration with contractors, architects, & engineers construction documents & design details leadership + travel + site documentation unit upgrades & finishes + model design space planning + lighting design client communications
project management
exterior paint

key project experience:

new development

- Trammel Crow Residential | Alexan Mills 50, Orlando, FL
- Greystar | Boulevard Phase II, Mount Pleasant, SC
- Tavistock | Poitras, Lake Nona, FL

renovation

- Bozzuto | Avalia, Boca Raton, FL
- Bell Partners | the Magwood, Boulder, CO
- Bell Partners | Salem Station, Salem, MA
- Bell Partners | Bell Boca, Boca Raton, FL
- Greystar | Avana Bayview, Pompano Beach, FL
- Greystar | Seabourn Cove, Pompano Beach, FL
- Greystar | Avana Cumberland, Atlanta, GA
- Greystar | Eilan Leasing, San Antonio, TX
- Greystar | Avana Eldridge, Houston, TX
- Greystar | 1225, Chicago, IL
- Holland | Tupelo Alley, Portland, OR

- Mill Creek | Alister Balcones, Austin, TX
- Mill Creek | Alister Parx, Everett, WA
- Greystar | the Domain at Town Centre (student housing), Morgantown, WV
- Greystar | Landmark (student housing), Ann Arbor, MI

best design tip:

your home is an outward manifestation of your inner experience; a reflection of yourself. make it a place you love (and typically that always means buying the bigger light fixture).

favorite pattern:

anything crafted by hand! shibori & mud cloth dyed goods feel so authentic & it gets me jazzed best advice:

work for the outcome; not the income

hidden talent:

worst cook in the office; 2013 – present. i'd like to thank the academy.

if it's the last thing i do...

...I will be a dog-mom!

trip of a lifetime:

there's not just one destination i could list! i'd love to go somewhere for an extended stay & totally immerse myself in a different culture.