best design tip:

“less is more”, a phrase popularized by ludwig mies van der rohe, has been in the back of my mind since university days, and has guided me well both in the world of design and outside of it.

favorite pattern:

i constantly encounter new favorites, lately i’ve been very fond of southwestern pattern

best advice:

leave your comfort zone and let your creativity bloom in unfamiliar spaces.

hidden talent:

former boogie woogie competitor

if it’s the last thing i do...

i would foster all the dogs in all the shelters in all the whole wide world

trip of a lifetime:

backpacking in israel and jordan
